

The Art Society Teme Valley: STUDY DAY
8th March 2024 at Cawley Hall, Eye, HR6 0DS
Lecturer: Brian Healey
Programme

10.00 am Arrival and coffee/tea

10.30 am: Lecture 1 Masters of the North

Dazzled by the impact of impressionism it is easy to overlook the stunning achievements of Nordic painters during the 19th century. From dazzling snowy landscapes to moody interiors this lecture showcases how together they shaped the national identities of Norway, Denmark and Sweden, forged in part from a battle against the elements and social deprivation as much as political power and provincialism during the turbulent years of the 19th century.

11.45 Lecture 2 . Helsinki: Music, Myth and Art Nouveau

Newcomers to Helsinki are often surprised by its stylish architecture that brings to life the mythical characters from Finland's ancient past. Such myths also inspired some of her most famous artists and musicians, not least Sibelius. In this multi-media presentation we examine how these forces came together in Finland's quest for nationhood, and helped turn its capital into a jewel of art nouveau, but with a distinctly Finnish flavour.

12.45-14.00 Lunch

14.00 Lecture 3.From Peasants TO Czars: A Portrait of 19th century Russia

Jump aboard as we embark on a pictorial sleigh ride through time and the vast space that was Russia before the revolution! Through the works of many dazzling Russian and indeed Ukrainian artists we will see not just how they showcased Russia's enigmatic beauty, but daringly criticised the ruling elite and the rapidly changing social order.
